

4-27-15

The Lord God says, "You say you know me, but I will declare to you that I do not know you. "Depart from me."

I am not the God who is reached through intellectual assent. I am not the God who is understood by the learned. I am found by those who put their faces to the ground in humble submission and follow the leading of My Spirit. Me knowing you is you doing as I say and do. My sheep hear my voice and will not follow another.

I am sick of those who can talk about Me, but have no fruit. I am weary of those who call out My name as theirs, but follow after men.

Submit to My leading in prayer, I lead you to seek my face, and away from yourselves. Repent for the Kingdom of God is at hand.
