The Winter that overtakes the Summer will be a sign to you. A sign of my coming, a sign of your need to be IN repentance, a sign for you to be a living sacrifice.

I call you to be baptized in the fire of the Holy Spirit. I call you to stand in the fire of my presence. I call you to allow my fire to burn out your passions for this world; to burn out your hunger for the pleasures of the world. Do you hear?

Sadly, there are two feet on disparate ground. Sadly, a complete faith is waning.
