

7-14-16

We are not called to be sexually oriented. Rather we are called to die to the flesh that is being corrupted in every way.

Sexual orientation in and of itself is not of God though He made them man and women. In Christ we are called to die to the flesh and live to his Spirit where there is neither Jew nor Greek, slave or free, neither is there male nor female but there is oneness in Christ.