

7-19-17

Watch as I separate out My people, those who hear My voice and will not follow another. Watch as I allow the means of your country's financial dealings to evaporate as the mist from the sea. Watch as the goods and services you thought were normal life are washed away in the sea of your indebtedness and predatory financial methodologies. Watch as the superiority you demand ends in the isolation you can't afford.

Woe to those who have no savings outside of the corrupt and malevolent storehouses of the masters of currency. Who through their magic spells and sorcery they have deceived the world to hold debt as an asset, murdered the getaway's and drowned whole nations with servitude and bondage to an evaporative system of exchange . Many will continue to drown, some may crawl exhausted from rip currents of the raging sea of debt, but because they have no "money" they will be sworn slaves to the proffered solution.

I am calling Mine out. Listen! Come out from her, that you not partake in her sins and adulteries.

It is written!!

Oh do My people perish for a lack of understanding and a heart that desires other things.

Who is trained in their spirit to live with less?

Who is trained in their spirit to not chase after the gains of the world?

Who is training themselves to walk away and live apart from the world banking system?

It is at your doorstep, yet blindly you suck down their entrapment saying, "Quick let us run to a Satoshi for gain!"

Listen for My intercession in repentance, this is life!
